The West Coast Clipper

Five days under sail — Hebridean links, island distilleries, one crewed clipper.

A crewed clipper out of Oban, working south through the Inner Hebrides: two of the most difficult tee sheets in Scotland, the south-coast distilleries of Islay, and evenings at anchor. Guests sleep aboard; transfers, tee times and tastings are secured under our name.

DURATION	Five days / four nights aboard	VESSEL	Private luxury clipper, crewed — six guests
PORTS	Oban · Jura · Islay · Mull	GOLF	Ardfin Estate · The Machrie Links
WHISKY	Laphroaig · Lagavulin · Ardbeg	SEASON	May – September, by arrangement

DAY BY DAY

- DAY I Oban — Ardfin Estate, Jura 3h 00 sail · 55 km
Board the clipper at Oban and sail south-west through the Sound of Jura. Evening round at Ardfin — arguably the most private links in Scotland — followed by dinner aboard.
- DAY II Ardfin — The Machrie, Islay 2h 00 sail · 28 km
A short south-westerly passage to Islay. Morning on the dunes of The Machrie Links, afternoon at leisure at Laggan Bay, night in the harbour.
- DAY III The Machrie — Laphroaig 30 min transfer · 8 km
The south-coast distilleries: private warehouse tastings and a cask-selection dinner at Laphroaig, with Lagavulin and Ardbeg arranged on request.
- DAY IV Laphroaig — Tobermory, Mull 3h 30 sail · 52 km
North-east past the Mull of Oa to Tobermory. Seafood landed that morning, served on deck against the painted harbour front.
- DAY V Tobermory — Oban 2h 30 sail · 38 km
Return across the Sound of Mull, with a final nine or a sea-eagle detour before your onward transfer to Edinburgh or Glasgow.
